TASTING NOTES

Its vibrant crimson hues are accompanied by a complex aroma bouquet of black plum, dark chocolate, leather, old licorice and tar. On the palate, the red wine is refined, textured, and has a dominant black fruit flavor showing a silky mouth feel with a long aftertaste.

VINEYARDS

Chris Ringland, the renowned Australian winemaker that produces wines of Bodegas El Nido, has always been in love with the vineyards of Syrah Gil Family Estates has in the Aragona Valley, north of Jumilla, especially in a small plot of land on a hillside facing north with average yields of 800 grams per vine that produces bunches and berries very small and very concentrated.
